CONSIGNING GOODS TO THE SALEROOM

Lots for sale can be accepted in the mornings 9am – 1pm during the week following an auction sale and will be listed on this entry form. Please phone for an appointment to deliver: - heavy items, items requiring presale valuation and large consignments. Entries must be listed on the Kidson-Trigg Entry Form. The Auctioneers reserve the right to refuse any items which are unsuitable or unfit for sale and also the right to dispose of items which fail to sell or are considered unsaleable – for which there will be a charge from £5 per lot.

Compliance with consumer protection legislation:-

Low Voltage Electrical Equipment (Safety) Regulations 1989; All electrical appliances submitted for sale must pass the current safety tests conducted by a qualified electrician at the saleroom. Any items failing the test will be rendered unsaleable and/ or withdrawn from sale and disposed of. Testing & disposal of such goods will incur a charge.

Furniture and Furnishings (Fire) (Safety) Regulations 1988; Upholstered, or partly upholstered furniture, beds and soft furnishings must meet the current safety regulations.

(Upholstered or partly upholstered furniture manufactured prior to 1950 is exempt). The Auctioneers will remove and/or withdraw nonconforming items and dispose of such items at the Vendor's expense.

General Product Safety Directive 1992; All items offered for sale must be safe for the purposes for which they are designed (Antiques are exempt). Any item judged by the Auctioneers to be unsafe but repairable or suitable for reconditioning will be labelled as such prior to the sale. Other unsafe goods will be withdrawn from sale and disposed of at the Vendor's expense.

Gun Proofing; All guns requiring a Licence submitted for sale must be in proof.

PLEASE NOTE: Non compliant items will be disposed off without reference to the vendor.

CATALOGUING & LOTTING

The auctioneers reserve the right to lot, describe, catalogue and display the items in a manner considered most beneficial to the Vendor. Catalogues will be compiled in good faith and every effort is made to ensure accuracy in description of goods for sale in as much as the Auctioneers act only as agents to the Vendor they cannot be held responsible for errors of description. All items received will be offered and sold to highest bidder unless a reserve price is agreed with the Auctioneer at the time of entry. Reserves below £50 are not accepted. Reserves will be placed on items for one sale only. It is the responsibility of the Vendor to contact the Auctioneers on the day following the sale to agree re-entry or collection of unsold goods. A storage charge will be levied for unsold items remaining uncollected after 5 working days after the sale at £5 per item per week.

VENDORS CHARGES & EXPENSES:

ALL CHARGES ARE SUBJECT TO VAT:

ENTRY / INTERNET FEE:

£5 will be charged on all lots entered into a sale, whether sold or unsold.

COMMISSION:

£12 charged on lots up to & including £60 hammer price
15% commission charge on lots above £60.

INDEMNITY:

Goods whilst in the custody of the Auctioneers are insured for loss or damage. The limit of the auctioneers liability will be the fair market value, the opinion of value by Kidson-Trigg will be final and binding.

PHOTOGRAPHY:

The Auctioneers will at their sole discretion (unless specifically instructed by the vendor at time of consignment) select lots for photography for illustration in the catalogue: £6 per black and white, £12 per colour, £15 colour 1/2 page, £30 colour full front page. All lots are photographed for the internet.

RESERVES

All items received will be offered & sold to the highest bidder unless an agreed reserve price is entered against the item on the entry form. Reserves placed after submission of entry form must be agreed with the auctioneers. Reserves below £50 cannot be accepted: a handling charge of 5% of the reserve price may be charged where lots fail to meet the reserve & a similar charge will be levied for items bought in by a Vendor on the hammer price. Reserves will be placed on items for one sale only & then it is the responsibility of the vendor to re-negotiate the reserve with the auctioneers otherwise items will be offered without a reserve.

WITHDRAWN ITEMS

Goods withdrawn prior to sale but after cataloguing or valuation, will be charged at the rate of 10% of the value based on reserve prices or auction valuation, plus expenses where applicable, which shall be binding upon the Vendor.

NOTIFICATION

Approximately 1 week before the appointed sale Vendors will be sent a catalogue and a list of their entries. It is the duty of the Vendor to check that all details are correct and if not, immediately phone the saleroom on 01793 861000.

PAYMENT

The Auctioneers will endeavour to issue payment between 14 and 21 working days of the sale, when statements together with cheques will be dispatched by first class mail, subject to the appropriate deductions.

The Auctioneers act throughout as Agents for the Vendor and will not be held responsible for any default by the buyer and accordingly the Vendor will not be paid until settlement has been received from the purchaser. Goods having been sold will not leave the Saleroom until Purchasers' accounts have been settled.

The Vendor hereby warrants on the Entry Form that the articles to be sold are not subject to a hire purchase agreement and that such articles are the sole and unencumbered property of the Vendor. Any Interest earned on our clients account will not be credited to the Vendors under normal terms of business.

I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE CHARGES & CONDITIONS OF ENTRY
& AGREE TO ABIDE THEM: (SIGNED BY VENDOR OVERLEAF)
